Student Research Committee

Overview

The student research committee has been launched from 1997 to improve, empower and support students researches. The committee is closely associated and supervised by the university Student Research committee.

Goals

- Enhancing the research skills

- Designing and delivering training sessions

- Conducting workshops

- Organizing conferences

- Servicing as a consultant

- Help students to be involved in a research

- Help students to publish their research

Activities

-Supervision of all academic and administrative affairs committee of the Faculty Student Research

-Coordination and communication between student research committee ministry of health and medical universities

-Request credit facilities for the various departments under the committee's annual credit research department

-Monitor the efficient use of resources and avoid wasting equipment and Credits

-Appointment of Secretary and officials after the vote of the General Council of Student Research Committee

-Presentation of the report of the Committee on Research and Assistance Office for the Coordination of Student Research Committee, Ministry of Health

Ilam University of Medical Sciences

Student Research Committee

-Convey instructions issued by the Dean of the Faculty, Vice Chancellor for Research and Coordination Office of Student Research Committee, Ministry of Health

-Participating in meetings of the Central Council Committee of Student Research Committee and Faculty Council

-Short-term and long-term planning to carry out research and development activities students
-Promote research culture in students

-Opportunities to identify and talents of students

-Create the enabling environment to promote growth and development of students

-Familiarize students with research methods and creating dynamism in scientific and research activities

-Provide appropriate material and moral support of scientific activities of students

-Encourage the translation of books and workshops and encourage research to obtain a publication